

PLAYING WITH THE ANGELS

STORIES OF POSSIBILITIES FOR GRIEVING CHILDREN

By K. Jane George
Illustrated by Mattie Zelinski

This book shares a gentle series of short stories about children who have lost a loved one. Each story in this book is inspired by real kids and their real losses, helping children who are living with grief to realize that they are not alone.

The realistic storytelling is complemented by magnificent artwork that captures the magic, mystery and possibility of what may lie beyond life on this Earth.

About the Author

Jane George is Executive Director of Wellwood in Hamilton, ON, a centre dedicated to helping people to live well with cancer.

A writer and former editor, she was also previously Director of Public Relations for the Faculty of Health Sciences at McMaster University.

About the Illustrator

Mattie Zelinski is an artist living in Vancouver, British Columbia. Mattie's beautiful home province is a majestic influence in her work.

To purchase a copy, visit www.PlayingWithTheAngels.com

For wholesale enquiries, please contact Bryan Prince Bookseller via email at staff@princebooks.net or call 1-800-867-0090.

PLAYING WITH THE ANGELS

STORIES OF POSSIBILITIES FOR GRIEVING CHILDREN

By K. Jane George
Illustrated by Mattie Zelinski

$19.99
(CDN)